

(b) Give your impression about standard Indian English. 5

6. (a) Write on the different types of CV. 5

(b) What is the significance of a memo ? 5

7. (a) Write a paragraph of about 150 words on the following : 5

Knowledge is power.

(b) Differentiate between a circular and a notice. 5

8. (a) Write a letter to the Insurance Company claiming for the damage to your newly bought bike. 5

(b) What important points would you keep in mind while writing a report. 5

Full Marks : 70

Time : 3 hours

Answer Q. No. 1 which is compulsory and any five from the rest of questions

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks

1. Answer the following : 2 × 10

(i) State two reasons how language is different from animal communication.

(ii) Explain how language is conditioned by situation.

(iii) Give two instances of language change.

(iv) Language is a medium between the speaker and the hearer. Justify.

(v) Write two sentences in simple present tense form denoting future time.

- (vi) Give examples of two uses of 'shall'.
- (vii) Give examples of two sentence linkers in English.
- (viii) Mention two consonants of English which cause problems for Indian learners.
- (ix) What is the difference between open syllable and close syllable ?
- (x) Write a brief note on aspirated plosives in English.

2. (a) Discuss the different types of tones in English. 5
- (b) Distinguish with illustration the formal and informal use of language. 5
3. (a) Write the plain English equivalents of the following terms : 5
- (i) linear
- (ii) analogous

- (iii) opaque
- (iv) homogeneous
- (v) novice.

- (b) Make use of the following phrasal verbs in sentences of your own : 5

- (i) call off
- (ii) carry out
- (iii) get along
- (iv) make out
- (v) break up.

4. (a) What do you mean by 'Intonation' ? Discuss with examples. 5
- (b) Write on the different types of stress in English. 5
5. (a) Write a note on the alveolar consonants in English. 5